NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

NEW SERIES.

IT IS CONTEMPLATED TO LAUNCH THE FIRST NUMBER of the above-named Journal, on the 1st January, 1863, under the patronage of the North-Carolina Conference, and under the direction and ownership of a joint stock Company, composed of ministers and laymen, to secure its permanency.

It will be as its name imports, a Christian Advocate,—devoted to the interests of pure religion, and the promotion of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Really, and not to advance Conference ends merely. Religious and literary articles will be contributed by the best writers in the Church. Besides its earnest, religious character, it shall be an advocate of the moral, educational and industrial interests of North Carolina.—A welcome visitor to every family and fireside, it will be found to be a valuable medium for advertising.

The Editor will spend all his time in the service of the paper, and will be assisted by the best talent in the Church.

The terms will be $3 per annum, in advance.

As soon as one or more new subscribers and the Cash, will be entitled to a copy of the paper for one year. It is desirable that a large list be sent in at once.

Address, WM. E. PELL, Editor.

A PROCLAMATION,

BY

ZEBULON B. VANCE,

GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

WHEREAS, it has been made known to me that a large number of soldiers from our State are absent from their colors without proper leave, to the hour of our people, and it being constantly believed that a large majority of such absentees from this source by a material and almost irresistible desire to see their homes and friends once more after so long an absence, and that to prevent such desertions as many as possible, all the dangers and hardships of the present revolution, and the duty of every citizen and soldier to aid in the defence of our State and Country, and to urge them to return to their commands with all possible dispatch, and that all who may voluntarily return to duty by the 15th day of February next, shall be restored into the ranks without punishment, than a forfeiture of pay for the time they have been absent without leave; and declaring further that all who do not so return by the said 15th day of February, shall, when apprehended, be tried for desertion, and upon conviction, be made to suffer death.

Now therefore, I ZEBULON B. VANCE, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do issue this my proclamation, calling upon the Commissioners, Wardens and Sheriffs in the several counties of this State, to arrest all persons found in their respective counties, who are absent from their colors, commanding them to return to duty with their companies, and exhorting them to assist in the execution of this order.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State, at the City of Raleigh, this 26th day of January, A. D. 1863, and in the eighty-seventh year of our Independence.

By the Governor:

E. E. BURKE, Jr.,
Private Secretary.
